

The Good Neighbors Graduate Scholarship allows eligible students to receive a discount equivalent to the difference between the graduate program's resident and nonresident rate per semester credit hour. This discount is 25% of the difference.