

The Office of Academic Affairs offers faculty and staff several opportunities for Curriculog training during the 2024-2025 academic year. These trainings are designed to facilitate the creation and approval of curriculum. They are structured to offer various options for assistance; however, faculty and staff are encouraged to contact Jennifer Ellis (jeellis@salisbury.edu) with questions at any time.

Access Curriculog at any time by using your SU username and password.

Running September 3 through April 1, Academic Affairs is hosting virtual open office hours.

J Z : salisbury.zoom.us/my/j.ellis

New to the Curriculog platform? Let's start by learning the basics.

Creating a new or changing a current program? Learn how to build the curriculum schema.

Learn how to craft a New Course or Change to Course proposal.

Approvers – Master the art of navigating through proposals effectively.

**Note the date and location change*

Register: salisbury.edu/curriculog-learning-sessions

While an RSVP is not required, it will help ensure an appropriate room size.

For more information contact Jennifer Ellis:
jeellis@salisbury.edu • 410-543-6330

Salisbury
UNIVERSITY

Make Tomorrow Yours