

Being Good Neighbors All Year

SU students committed to building good neighborhood relationships started the semester placing door hangers at campus area homes and talking with residents. On the hangers were tips for students about how to be good neighbors and

